

Gourmet Nights

An evening of culinary wonders, where every bite is a delight and every dish tells a story, a delectable journey through the city's finest eateries.

From hip little hole-in-the-wall bars to spectacular harbour-side restaurants, Sydney's culinary scene has it all. Join your food and drink loving Splendour host for a private tour visiting some of the top food and wine destinations in Sydney. You'll feel like you've met an old friend for dinner as you wander the city and fun neighbourhood streets of Sydney. Tonight, we'll ensure you get a taste of Sydney's fine dining, funky bistro scene and urban street food (in the form of Gelato).

Kick-off with a bang in the city's centre. Overlooking Sydney Harbour, enjoy your first course of delicate entrees, prepared just for you, and created to show off Australia's fresh flavourful seafood and produce scene. We dare say, you won't find fresher in the world. Enjoy this with a glass of Australian bubbles or a native cocktail, the choice is yours.

Leave the bustling city behind and stroll through the Royal Botanic Gardens, weaving your way up to Potts Point. This is a 2.4-kilometre walk – embark on all of it or hop in an Uber with your host. Your next culinary suburb of Potts Point is affectionately known as the 'Paris' of Sydney and this is where you'll have your main meal. Here we want to show you how the locals love to dine – in a funky urban bistro with a great glass of local wine and a generous, clean meal bursting with flavour and innovation. There are so many spots to indulge in Potts Point – from an Israeli-inspired converted terrace restaurant to a French-style bistro serving up a river trout almondine that will literally knock your socks off. We'll choose your dining venues based on the day of the week, your dietary preferences and where we know is hot & happening that night!

After your main, we want to show you a couple more of Sydney's bright suburbs and interesting flavours - your host will take you on a walk-through colourful Kings Cross and into nearby Darlinghurst, where you will stop at Australia's home to the best gelato, Gelato Messina for dessert. Be warned - this is a mind-blowing gelato bar, Sydney-siders can't get enough of so you may have to wait in line or muscle your way up to the ordering counter – that's what your host is for! Indulge your senses with endless scoops of this mouth-watering treat.

Finally, allow our host to show you one of their favourite local haunts as you wrap up the evening on a high with a nightcap in a stylish bar in Darlinghurst. Here the Gourmet Nights journey will end in Darlinghurst at approximately 9.45pm, your host will ensure you are safely in an Uber back to your hotel.
